

Country & City DropDown

India | chennai

Selected Country : India

Selected City : chennai

```
React > day1-react > src > components > CountryCity.jsx > CountryCity
1  import React,{useState} from 'react'
2
3
4  const CountryCity = () => {
5    const countryData = {
6      India : ["chennai", "mumbai", "Delhi"],
7      USA: ["New York", "chicago", "Los Angeles"],
8      Canada : ["Toronto", "vancouver", "Montreal"]
9    };
10   const [country, setCountry] = useState("");
11   const [city,setCity] = useState("");
12
13   const handleCountryChange = (e) => {
14     setCountry(e.target.value);
15     setCity("");
16   }
17   const cities = countryData[country] || [];
18   return (
19
20       <h2>Country & City DropDown</h2>
21       <select value = {country} onChange={handleCountryChange}
22       >
23         <option value="">Select Country</option>
24         {Object.keys(countryData).map((countries)-> (
25           <option key={countries} value={countries} >{countries}</option>
26         ))}
27       </select>
28       <select name="" id="" value={city} onChange={(e) =>setCity(e.target.value)}>
29         <option value="">Select City</option>
30         {cities.map((city1) => (
31           <option value={city1} key={city1}>
32             {city1}
33           </option>
34         ))}
35       </select>
36
37       Selected Country : {country}
38       Selected City : {city}
39
40
41 )}
42
43 export default CountryCity
```